Chris S. Hodges is Founder and President of Abiding Above Ministries.

Abiding Above Ministries is a ministry of encouragement, missionary evangelism, and worldwide multiplying disciple making training.

In 1998, Dr. Adrian Rogers asked Chris to serve on staff as Minister of Pastoral Care, at the historic 29,000 member Bellevue Baptist Church in the Memphis, Tennessee area. Dr. Rogers presided over Chris' ordination council and ordained Chris to the Gospel ministry. Rev. Hodges has preached across America in churches, conferences, and around the world in locations such as El Salvador, Uruguay, South Africa, Puerto Rico, Kenya, Nicaragua, Russia, Ethiopia, Nigeria, Mexico, and Jamaica. Chris has also led group excursions to Israel, touring the major historical sites of the Holy Land, as well as a cruise retracing the missionary journeys of the Apostle Paul around the Mediterranean Sea.

In 2009, the broadcasting ministry of "Abiding Above with Chris Hodges," began its first radio broadcast with Bott-Radio Network in Memphis, and later in Nashville, Tennessee. This has expanded to include radio stations in Washington D.C., Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Georgia, and Arkansas. Over the years, Chris has served generously as a board member with the Adrian Rogers Pastor Training Institute and the Christian Life Convention Advisory Board of Stephen Olford Ministries International.

Chris has twice been a speaker at America's Keswick and has contributed to Volume 2 of America's Keswick devotional series, Real Victory for Real Life. Chris, his wife, Kellie, and daughter, Maclaren, reside in the Memphis area as they faithfully fulfill God's call upon their lives.
